

PRESENTMENT

Meaning: Presentment refers to a feeling or intuition that something, often negative or foreboding, is about to happen.

1. The dark clouds on the horizon filled her with a sense of presentment that something ominous was about to occur.
2. His presentment of the upcoming challenges was both insightful and alarming, prompting the team to prepare thoroughly.
3. Despite her calm demeanor, she felt an unsettling presentment that her plans would soon unravel.
4. The artist's latest work conveyed a presentment of change, reflecting the turbulent times they were living in.
5. As they entered the abandoned building, a chilling presentment washed over them, warning them of unseen dangers lurking within.

---

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/presentment>