PRESS

Meaning: Press: to apply pressure to something or to insist on obtaining information or a response.

1. She decided to press the button to start the machine.
2. The journalist was eager to press for answers during the interview.
3. He felt the weight of the press and knew he had to perform well.
4. As the deadline approached, the team felt the pressure to finish the project.
5. The artist used a special technique to press flowers into a beautiful display.
6. The journalist had to press the politician for more information during the interview.
7. She decided to press her clothes before the big event to ensure she looked polished.
8. In order to get the best flavor from the garlic, you should press it with the side of your knife.
9. The company plans to press ahead with its expansion despite the recent economic downturn.
10. He felt the weight of the world pressing down on him as he faced his challenges.
11. The journalist decided to press for more information during the interview.
12. She felt a sense of urgency as she had to press the button before the timer ran out.
13. The pressure began to mount as the team worked to press their advantage in the game.
14. He used a heavy object to press the flowers between the pages of the book.
15. After the conference, the press flooded the room with questions about the announcements.
16. The journalist decided to press for more details during the interview.
17. With a firm press of the button, the machine sprang to life.
18. She felt a gentle press on her shoulder, reassuring her that everything would be fine.
19. The press coverage of the event was overwhelmingly positive, highlighting its success.
20. He used a heavy press to flatten the dough before rolling it out.
21. The journalist was eager to press the mayor for answers during the press conference.
22. As the deadline approached, she felt the pressure to press ahead with her research project.

23. He decided to press the shirt before the important meeting to ensure he looked presentable.

24. The artist used an old printing press to create stunning limited edition prints of her work.

25. In a moment of frustration, he had to press the reset button on his computer to fix the issue.

26. The journalist rushed to press the button that would release the breaking news story.

27. She felt the press of the crowd behind her as they all waited for the concert to begin.

28. In an effort to promote the event, the organizers decided to invite members of the press.

29. He had to press on despite the challenges he faced during the project.

30. The artist's print was featured in the local press, garnering attention from the community.

---

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/press