

PRESUMER

Meaning: Presumer: a person who makes assumptions or takes liberties in interpreting facts without sufficient evidence or knowledge.

1. The presumers of the facts often skew the narrative to fit their agenda.
2. As a presumers, they tended to make assumptions without knowing all the details.
3. In discussions, the presumers frequently overlooked the nuances of the argument.
4. Being a presumers can lead to misunderstandings and strained relationships.
5. The presumers claimed to know the outcome before any evidence was presented.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/presumer>