

PRETENSION

Meaning: Pretension refers to a claim or assertion of a quality or skill that is not genuinely possessed, often accompanied by an attitude of superiority or self-importance.

1. His pretension to be an expert in the field was quickly exposed during the discussion.
2. She admired her friend's artistic talent but couldn't stand the pretension that came with it.
3. The pretension of wealth was evident in the extravagant decorations of the mansion.
4. Despite his pretension of indifference, it was clear he deeply cared about the outcome.
5. The conference was filled with speakers who spoke with a certain pretension that alienated the audience.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/pretension>