

PREVARICATION

Meaning: Prevarication is the act of deliberately avoiding the truth or being evasive in speech or behavior.

1. His constant prevarication during the interview raised suspicions about his honesty.
2. The politician's prevarication made it difficult for voters to trust his promises.
3. She was tired of his prevarication and demanded a straightforward answer.
4. Prevarication in his testimony could lead to serious legal consequences.
5. Everyone knew that her prevarication was just a way to avoid taking responsibility.

---

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/prevarication>