

PREVARICATOR

Meaning: Prevaricator: a person who speaks or acts in an evasive or misleading way, often to avoid the truth.

1. The politician was labeled a prevaricator after his inconsistent statements about the policy changes.
2. Despite his charm, his reputation as a prevaricator made it difficult for anyone to trust his word.
3. In a courtroom filled with tension, the defense attorney was accused of being a prevaricator by the prosecution.
4. Her tendency to prevaricate during interviews left her colleagues questioning her integrity.
5. The writer created a character who was a master prevaricator, skillfully weaving lies into every conversation.

---

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/prevaricator>