

PREVENTIVELY

Meaning: Preventively: in a manner intended to stop something undesirable from occurring.

1. The doctor recommended getting vaccinated preventively to avoid the outbreak.
2. She decided to take a day off work preventively, fearing she might be coming down with something.
3. The company conducted a safety drill preventively, ensuring all employees knew what to do in an emergency.
4. To mitigate the risks of data loss, the IT department backed up the files preventively.
5. The gardener applied a pesticide preventively, hoping to keep pests away from the crops.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/preventively>