

PRICK

Meaning: A prick is a sharp, pointed sensation or a small puncture made by a sharp object.

1. He felt a sharp prick in his finger as he tried to fix the thorny bush.
2. The doctor assured her that the prick from the needle would be brief and minimal.
3. As he walked through the garden, he accidentally brushed against a prickly plant.
4. The sudden prick of jealousy surged through her when she saw them together.
5. With a small prick of a pin, she secured the fabric to the board for her project.
6. He felt a sharp prick on his finger from the thorn.
7. The nurse warned him that the injection would cause a quick prick but would be over in an instant.
8. She pricked the balloon with a pin, causing it to burst loudly.
9. The artist used a fine needle to prick tiny holes in the paper for her intricate design.
10. When he stepped on the thorny branch, he winced at the sudden prick of pain.
11. He accidentally pricked his finger while preparing the roses.
12. The sharp thorn pricked her hand and drew a small drop of blood.
13. She felt a prick of regret as she walked away from the argument.
14. The needle pricked the fabric, making it easier to stitch together.
15. His comments were meant to be playful, but they left a prick of annoyance in her heart.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/prick>