

PRICKING

Meaning: Pricking refers to a sharp, tingling, or stinging sensation often associated with minor pain or discomfort in a specific area of the body.

1. The pricking sensation in her fingers made her realize she had been sitting too long.
2. He felt a sharp pricking pain in his arm after the vaccination.
3. The thorns of the rose bush were notorious for pricking anyone who got too close.
4. She winced at the pricking sound of the needle as it pierced the fabric.
5. A gentle pricking of curiosity urged him to explore the mysterious old house.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/pricking>