

PRICKLING

Meaning: Prickling refers to a tingling or stinging sensation, often associated with discomfort or a sudden change in temperature.

1. The prickling sensation on her skin warned her that something was amiss.
2. As the sun set, a prickling chill began to fill the air.
3. He felt a prickling urge to speak up but remained silent.
4. The prickling of his fingers indicated he had been sitting in one position for too long.
5. She experienced a prickling excitement as she approached the stage to perform.

---

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/prickling>