

PRIDEFUL

Meaning: Prideful: possessing an excessive sense of self-esteem or satisfaction in one's achievements.

1. She was prideful about her accomplishments, often sharing her successes with anyone who would listen.
2. His prideful attitude made it difficult for him to accept constructive criticism from his peers.
3. Despite his talent, he remained humble and avoided the prideful behavior that so often alienates others.
4. The prideful king refused to listen to the advice of his advisors, believing he was always right.
5. Her prideful nature sometimes led to misunderstandings in her friendships, as she struggled to show vulnerability.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/prideful>