

PRILL

Meaning: Prill (verb): to form or convert a substance, especially a powdered chemical, into small spherical granules or pellets.

1. The manufacturer decided to prill the chemical to improve its solubility.
2. In the lab, they used a specialized machine to prill the powdered material into small granules.
3. The prill formed during the cooling process was consistent in size and shape.
4. Farmers prefer to use prilled fertilizers because they dissolve more evenly in the soil.
5. After the drying process, the team was excited to see the quality of the prill they produced.
6. The chemical compound was transformed into small prills for easier handling.
7. Farmers preferred using prill fertilizers because they dissolve slowly, providing consistent nutrients.
8. During the manufacturing process, the molten material was cooled rapidly to form tiny prills.
9. The prill structure allowed for better application across large agricultural fields.
10. Scientists are researching how prill size affects the efficiency of nutrient delivery in soil.
11. The scientist carefully observed how the prill dissolved in the solvent during the experiment.
12. Farmers are increasingly using prills as a method of applying fertilizers more efficiently.
13. The new manufacturing process produced uniform prills that significantly improved product quality.
14. After the storm, the prill of the rainwater created small pools on the ground.
15. She admired the shiny prill of the seed, hoping it would yield a bountiful harvest.
16. The farmer decided to use prill as a means to enhance the soil's nutrient content.
17. After the chemical reaction, the product was a fine white prill that easily dispersed in water.
18. Many industries prefer prill because it allows for more precise application of fertilizers.
19. The laboratory technician noted that the prill had a consistent size and shape, making it ideal for experiments.
20. During the production process, they monitored the temperature closely to ensure the prill formed correctly.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/prill>