

PRIM

Meaning: Prim: characterized by a formal, proper, and sometimes stiff demeanor or appearance.

1. The prim nature of the event called for a more formal dress code than usual.
2. She always maintained a prim and proper demeanor, even in casual settings.
3. His prim and tidy handwriting made it easy for others to read his notes.
4. The old-fashioned tea party had a distinctly prim atmosphere, complete with lace tablecloths.
5. Despite her prim exterior, she had a wild sense of humor that surprised her friends.
6. The prim appearance of the room was enhanced by the neatly arranged furniture.
7. She wore a prim dress that was perfectly tailored for the formal event.
8. His prim demeanor often made it difficult for him to connect with his more relaxed colleagues.
9. Despite her prim and proper attitude, she had a mischievous sense of humor.
10. The prim garden was a testament to her dedication to maintaining a flawless landscape.
11. The prim nature of the gathering made it feel more like a formal event than a casual get-together.
12. Her prim demeanor often led others to believe she was aloof, but she had a warm heart.
13. He adjusted his tie, wanting to appear prim and proper for the important meeting.
14. The garden was arranged in a prim fashion, with neat rows of flowers and perfectly trimmed hedges.
15. She wore a prim dress that emphasized her poise and elegance during the ceremony.
16. The prim nature of her demeanor made her the perfect candidate for the formal event.
17. His prim and proper attire set him apart from the more casual guests at the party.
18. She spoke in a prim tone, emphasizing the importance of etiquette in their conversation.
19. Despite her prim appearance, she had a surprisingly adventurous spirit hidden underneath.
20. The school's strict dress code ensured that all students maintained a prim look throughout the day.

21. The prim nature of the event made it feel more like a formal gathering than a casual party.
22. She always had a prim demeanor, which added to her air of sophistication.
23. He adjusted his tie with a prim flourish before stepping into the meeting room.
24. The prim and proper decor of the house reflected the owner's meticulous personality.
25. Despite her prim appearance, she had a wild sense of humor that surprised everyone.
26. The prim demeanor of the lady made it difficult for her to fit in at the casual gathering.
27. His prim and proper attitude often clashed with his friends' more laid-back lifestyles.
28. She arranged the flowers in a prim manner, ensuring that each stem was perfectly aligned.
29. The school's strict dress code contributed to the prim atmosphere among the students.
30. Even in her casual outfits, she managed to maintain a prim elegance that impressed everyone.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/prim>