

PRIMARINESS

Meaning: Primariness refers to the quality of being primary or fundamental, emphasizing the importance or precedence of something essential.

1. The primariness of her emotions made it difficult for her to hide her true feelings.
2. In the debate over education, the primariness of foundational skills cannot be overlooked.
3. His research focuses on the primariness of instinctual behaviors in early childhood development.
4. The artist emphasized the primariness of color and form in her latest collection.
5. Philosophers often discuss the primariness of existence as a fundamental aspect of being.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/primariness>