

PRIMATESHIP

Meaning: Primateship refers to the position or status of leadership within a group of primates, influenced by factors such as age, strength, or social relationships.

1. The concept of primateship often refers to the leadership roles assumed within a group of primates.
2. In many social species, primateship can shift based on factors like age, strength, or social bonds.
3. Understanding the dynamics of primateship can offer insights into human social structures and hierarchies.
4. Researchers observed that primateship is not just a result of dominance, but also involves cooperation and alliance-building.
5. The study highlighted how primateship impacts group cohesion and the survival strategies of the species.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/primateship>