

PRIMIPILAR

Meaning: Primipilar: the highest-ranking centurion in ancient Roman armies, recognized for his leadership and significant military status.

1. The primipilar status of the soldier marked a significant milestone in his military career.
2. In ancient Roman armies, the primipilar was the highest-ranking centurion, respected for his leadership.
3. As a primipilar, she was responsible for training new recruits and ensuring their readiness for battle.
4. The primipilar's decisions were crucial during the campaign, influencing the outcome of several key encounters.
5. Being promoted to primipilar was a dream come true for him, a recognition of his dedication and skill.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/primipilar>