

PRIMP

Meaning: To primp means to groom or arrange oneself carefully and meticulously, often in preparation for an event.

1. She took her time to primp before the big event, ensuring every detail was perfect.
2. The actress always seemed to primp in front of the mirror, adjusting her hair and makeup.
3. As the wedding day approached, she would primp every morning, excited for the moment she would walk down the aisle.
4. He watched her smile as she primped, clearly enjoying the process of preparing for the party.
5. After a long day at work, she liked to primp for a few moments before going out with friends.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/primp>