

PRINCIPALNESS

Meaning: Principalness refers to the quality or state of being primary, leading, or of utmost importance in a particular context.

1. The principalness of her argument was evident in the clarity and strength of her reasoning.
2. He approached the task with a sense of principalness that inspired his colleagues.
3. In the debate, the principalness of their claims was challenged by opposing evidence.
4. Her principalness in the project led to its successful completion ahead of schedule.
5. The committee valued principalness above all in their discussions about the new policy.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/principalness>