

PRIZER

Meaning: A prizer is a person who values, appreciates, or holds in high regard something or someone.

1. The prizer of the artwork was determined by the bidding process at the auction.
2. She was the prizer of her family's traditions, ensuring that they were passed down through generations.
3. His reputation as a prizer of rare coins made him a sought-after expert in the field.
4. At the science fair, the young inventor was named the prizer for his innovative project.
5. The prizer of the prestigious award was announced during the gala, leaving everyone in suspense.
6. The prizer of the competition awarded the trophy to the most innovative design.
7. As a prizer, she had the challenging task of selecting the best entries from hundreds of submissions.
8. The prizer announced the winners with great enthusiasm, celebrating their hard work and creativity.
9. In the world of literature, a prizer can significantly influence an author's career and public recognition.
10. Being a prizer at the film festival was an honor, as it allowed him to recognize outstanding talent in the industry.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/prizer>