

PROCESSIONAL

Meaning: Processional: a musical composition or ceremonial march performed as part of a formal entrance or procession, often used in religious or academic contexts.

1. The choir's processional filled the church with a sense of reverence as the congregation stood in anticipation.
2. As the graduates entered the auditorium, the processional music signaled the beginning of the ceremony.
3. The wedding guests were captivated by the elegant processional that featured the bride accompanied by her father.
4. During the annual festival, a colorful processional wound through the streets, showcasing various cultural traditions.
5. The school decided to incorporate a processional into their graduation ceremony to honor the graduates' achievements.
6. The processional music filled the church as the bridal party made their way down the aisle.
7. Students in caps and gowns lined up for the processional, their excitement palpable as they prepared for graduation.
8. The choir sang beautifully during the processional, setting a joyous tone for the evening ceremony.
9. A majestic processional of flags marked the beginning of the national celebration, drawing cheers from the crowd.
10. As the sun set, the processional of lanterns illuminated the path, creating a serene and magical atmosphere.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/processional>