

PROCRASTINATING

Meaning: Procrastinating is the act of delaying or postponing tasks or responsibilities, often resulting in stress and urgency.

1. She spent the entire afternoon procrastinating instead of studying for her final exams.
2. Procrastinating can lead to unnecessary stress and last-minute panic.
3. He realized that procrastinating his responsibilities only made them feel more overwhelming.
4. Despite her best intentions, she found herself procrastinating on the project until the deadline was looming.
5. Procrastinating often robs us of the satisfaction that comes from completing tasks on time.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/procrastinating>