

PROCREATION

Meaning: Procreation is the process of producing offspring or generating new life, particularly in the context of human reproduction and family formation.

1. Procreation is often viewed as a fundamental aspect of human existence.
2. Many cultures have unique rituals and beliefs surrounding procreation and family planning.
3. The biological processes involved in procreation vary significantly between species.
4. In the context of environmental sustainability, procreation raises questions about population growth.
5. Advancements in reproductive technology have changed the traditional understanding of procreation.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/procreation>