

PROCURER

Meaning: A procurer is a person who obtains or sources goods, materials, or items, often with a focus on rarity or value.

1. The procurer was known for his ability to source rare materials from distant lands.
2. In the world of art, a skilled procurer can make all the difference in acquiring valuable pieces.
3. The film's storyline revolved around a procurer who helped artists find their unique voices.
4. She worked as a procurer for a charity, ensuring that donations reached those in need.
5. His reputation as a procurer of fine wines attracted connoisseurs from all over the city.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/procurer>