

PRODUCEMENT

Meaning: Producement refers to the process or act of producing or creating something, particularly in the context of sustainable energy or innovative industries.

1. The producemenet of sustainable energy sources has become a priority for many governments.
2. Her innovative approach to producemenet in the textile industry has garnered international recognition.
3. They focused on the producemenet of high-quality goods to compete in the global market.
4. The producemenet of new technologies often requires significant investment and research.
5. In the realm of education, the producemenet of engaging learning materials can enhance student outcomes.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/producement>