PROFANER

Meaning: Profaner: a person who shows disrespect or contempt for sacred things or rituals, often disrupting their significance.

1. The profaner shouted insults during the ceremony, disrupting the solemn atmosphere.

2. In literature, the profaner often symbolizes a challenge to societal norms and values.

3. Witnesses described the man as a profaner, someone who disrespected the sacred space of the temple.

4. The artist's provocative work was seen by some as a celebration, while others labeled it the work of a profaner.

5. To the community, the actions of the profaner were a betrayal of their shared beliefs and traditions.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/profaner