

PROFESS

Meaning: To profess means to openly declare or affirm a belief, feeling, or opinion.

1. She chose to profess her love for him in front of all their friends.
2. During the debate, he passionately professed his belief in the importance of education.
3. The teacher would often profess her commitment to nurturing each student's potential.
4. In his acceptance speech, the author professed gratitude for the support he received throughout his career.
5. They gathered to profess their faith, uniting in a shared belief and community.
6. She decided to profess her love for him in front of all their friends.
7. During the lecture, he would often profess his admiration for classical literature.
8. The priest chose to profess his faith openly, despite the potential backlash.
9. In a moment of vulnerability, she began to profess her deepest fears and insecurities.
10. He took the opportunity to profess his commitment to social justice through his work.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/profess>