

PROFESSORIALISM

Meaning: Professorialism refers to a prevailing attitude or approach in academia characterized by a focus on the authority and status of professors, which may create a separation between faculty and students.

1. The concept of professorialism can often lead to a disconnect between faculty and students.
2. In her latest article, she critiques the growing trend of professorialism in modern academia.
3. Professorialism tends to emphasize authority and expertise, sometimes at the expense of collaboration.
4. Many argue that professorialism creates a hierarchical atmosphere that stifles creativity and innovation.
5. His approach to teaching reflects a deep commitment to combating the negative aspects of professorialism.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/professorialism>