

PROFUSIVE

Meaning: Profusive: exhibiting or characterized by an abundant or excessive amount, often in terms of growth or expression.

1. The garden was profusive with blooming flowers, creating a vibrant tapestry of colors.
2. His profusive praise for the artist left everyone in the room feeling uplifted.
3. The profusive rain during the spring months transformed the landscape into a lush paradise.
4. She had a profusive way of expressing her emotions, often overwhelming those around her.
5. The author's profusive descriptions captivated readers, painting vivid images in their minds.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/profusive>