

PROGRAM

Meaning: A program is a structured course or set of activities designed to achieve specific educational or developmental objectives.

1. The coding bootcamp offered a comprehensive program that catered to beginners.
2. She enrolled in a leadership program designed to enhance her management skills.
3. The university's research program received significant funding for innovative studies.
4. He was excited to be part of the new mentorship program aimed at fostering young talent.
5. The television network launched a reality program that quickly gained a massive following.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/program>