

PROHIBITIONIST

Meaning: A prohibitionist is a person who advocates for the prohibition of certain substances, particularly alcohol, often through legal means.

1. The prohibitionist movement of the early 20th century sought to eliminate alcohol consumption in society.
2. As a staunch prohibitionist, she advocated for strict laws against the sale and distribution of alcohol.
3. Many prohibitionists believed that banning alcohol would lead to a healthier and more moral society.
4. The prohibitionist era saw the rise of organized crime as illegal speakeasies flourished in cities.
5. Despite the efforts of prohibitionists, public demand for alcohol ultimately led to the repeal of restrictive laws.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/prohibitionist>