

PROHIBITORY

Meaning: Prohibitory refers to measures or policies that restrict or forbid certain actions or behaviors.

1. The new regulations included prohibitory measures aimed at reducing pollution in the city.
2. Her prohibitory stance on smoking in public places sparked a heated debate among residents.
3. The contract contained a prohibitory clause that prevented the employee from working with competitors.
4. Although the law was intended to be prohibitory, many found ways to circumvent its restrictions.
5. The prohibitory nature of the rules deterred many from attempting to navigate the challenging course.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/prohibitory>