PROJECTMENT

Meaning: Projectment is the act of proactively visualizing and planning for future goals or outcomes.

1. The concept of projectment involves the proactive visualization of future goals.
2. In her latest presentation, she emphasized the importance of projectment in strategic planning.
3. His projectment of the team's success helped boost morale during challenging times.
4. The therapist encouraged her clients to engage in projectment to enhance their motivation.
5. Effective projectment can lead to more successful outcomes in both personal and professional endeavors.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/projectment