

PROLOCUTORSHIP

Meaning: Prolocutorship is the position or role of a speaker or leader, particularly one who guides discussions or debates with clarity and authority.

1. The role of prolocutorship in the debate significantly influenced the direction of the discussion.
2. Her prolocutorship was marked by clarity and authority, guiding the committee through complex issues.
3. In academic circles, prolocutorship is often viewed as essential for effective communication and leadership.
4. The prolocutorship established during the conference allowed for a more organized exchange of ideas.
5. He aspired to attain a prolocutorship that would enable him to champion innovative policies in the organization.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/prolocutorship>