

PROMOTION

Meaning: Promotion refers to the advancement of an employee to a higher position or the act of marketing a product or service to increase sales or awareness.

1. She received a promotion at work after her successful project presentation.
2. The store is having a promotion this weekend, offering discounts on all clothing items.
3. His hard work and dedication led to a well-deserved promotion within the company.
4. The promotion of the new product was met with excitement from the marketing team.
5. They celebrated her promotion with a surprise party at her favorite restaurant.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/promotion>