

PRONOUNCEABLE

Meaning: Pronounceable: capable of being articulated or spoken clearly and correctly.

1. The word he chose for his username was so complex that it was hardly pronounceable.
2. After hours of practice, she finally managed to pronounce the foreign name correctly, even though it seemed unpronounceable at first.
3. The linguist was fascinated by the variety of pronounceable sounds in different languages.
4. Children often create imaginative names for their toys that are both fun and pronounceable.
5. In an effort to make the brand more relatable, the marketing team opted for a name that was easily pronounceable.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/pronounceable>