

PRONUNCIATOR

Meaning: A pronouncer is a tool or device used to assist in the correct pronunciation of words, often by providing audio examples or phonetic guidance.

1. The teacher used a pronouncer to help students master difficult vocabulary.
2. In the recording studio, the pronouncer was essential for ensuring accurate pronunciation of each word.
3. She relied on a digital pronouncer to guide her through the unfamiliar foreign language.
4. As a linguist, he often developed custom pronounciators for various dialects and accents.
5. The software included a built-in pronouncer that provided instant feedback on spoken language.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/pronunciator>