

PROPAGANDISM

Meaning: Propagandism is the systematic promotion of biased or misleading information to influence public opinion and beliefs.

1. The regime's use of propagandism effectively altered public perception of the war.
2. Critics argue that the school curriculum is heavily influenced by propagandism rather than factual history.
3. In an age of misinformation, it's crucial to distinguish between genuine information and propagandism.
4. The documentary explored the impact of propagandism on social movements throughout the 20th century.
5. Media literacy programs aim to equip students with the skills to recognize propagandism in news coverage.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/propagandism>