

PROPINE

Meaning: Propine is a chemical compound, specifically an alkyne with the molecular formula C<sub>3</sub>H<sub>6</sub>, characterized by a triple bond between carbon atoms.

1. The chemist decided to investigate the properties of propine in his latest experiment.
2. During the synthesis process, they accidentally created a small amount of propine.
3. Propine, a less common alkyne, possesses unique characteristics that intrigued the researchers.
4. The team was thrilled to isolate propine, as it had potential applications in organic synthesis.
5. Understanding the reaction mechanisms involving propine could lead to more efficient chemical processes.
6. The researchers decided to propine the new compound to enhance its effectiveness.
7. After hours of experimentation, they were able to successfully propine the solution.
8. The team was excited to propine their findings at the upcoming science conference.
9. In order to achieve the desired outcome, they chose to propine the process meticulously.
10. She explained how they would propine the existing methodology for better results.
11. The chemist decided to investigate the properties of propine in his recent experiments.
12. During the lecture, the professor explained how propine could be synthesized from simpler compounds.
13. In organic chemistry, propine is recognized for its unique triple bond structure.
14. Research on propine has revealed its potential applications in various industrial processes.
15. The safety data sheet for propine detailed the necessary precautions for handling the chemical.

---

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/propine>