

PROPORTIONATING

Meaning: Proportionating refers to the process of adjusting and balancing elements in relation to one another to achieve harmony or symmetry.

1. The architect spent hours proportionating the elements of the building to achieve perfect symmetry.
2. In art class, we learned the importance of proportionating colors to create a harmonious composition.
3. The chef emphasized the need for proportionating ingredients to ensure the dish had the right balance of flavors.
4. During the experiment, scientists focused on proportionating the various chemicals to observe their reactions accurately.
5. The graphic designer was careful in proportionating the images to maintain visual consistency across the layout.

---

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/proportionating>