

PROPORTIONMENT

Meaning: Proportionment refers to the allocation or distribution of resources or elements in a balanced or appropriate manner among different entities or areas.

1. The proportionment of resources among the various departments was a challenging task for the management team.
2. In the study, researchers emphasized the importance of proportionment in achieving accurate results.
3. Proportionment of the budget was necessary to ensure fair distribution for all community projects.
4. Understanding the proportionment of time dedicated to each subject can improve overall academic performance.
5. The artist's unique approach to color proportionment created a striking visual balance in the painting.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/proportionment>