

PROPOSITION

Meaning: A proposition is a proposed idea or plan put forward for consideration or discussion.

1. The committee debated the merits of the new proposition for urban development.
2. She presented a bold proposition that could revolutionize the education system.
3. After much discussion, they reached a consensus on the original proposition for the project.
4. His proposition to increase the budget was met with mixed reactions from the team.
5. The proposition was clear: invest in renewable energy or face future consequences.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/proposition>