

PROREPTION

Meaning: Proreption refers to the process of misjudging or overestimating one's abilities or competencies, often in competitive contexts.

1. Proreption can sometimes lead to a misunderstanding of one's abilities in a competitive environment.
2. The concept of proreption is often discussed in psychological studies related to self-perception.
3. In moments of doubt, proreption can either inspire confidence or create hesitation in decision-making.
4. Understanding proreption is crucial for personal development and growth.
5. Her proreption of the situation helped her navigate the challenges with grace and poise.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/proreption>