

PROSECUTOR

Meaning: A prosecutor is a legal official who represents the government in criminal cases, responsible for presenting evidence against the accused in court.

1. The prosecutor presented compelling evidence during the trial.
2. After careful consideration, the prosecutor decided to drop the charges.
3. With a strong case built against the defendant, the prosecutor felt confident about securing a conviction.
4. The prosecutor's closing arguments were both passionate and persuasive.
5. She was determined to hold the defendant accountable as the lead prosecutor in the high-profile case.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/prosecutor>