

PROTEND

Meaning: To pretend means to foreshadow or indicate a future event or outcome.

1. The ancient manuscripts seem to pretend the rise of a new civilization.
2. Her smile would often pretend the secrets she kept hidden from the world.
3. The storm clouds in the distance pretend an approaching tempest.
4. He believed that the dreams he had each night could pretend his future.
5. The artist's latest work seems to pretend a shift in the cultural landscape.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/pretend>