

PROUDLING

Meaning: Proudling (noun): a display of pride or joy, often characterized by exuberant behavior or celebration, typically in a group setting.

1. The proudling of the children as they waved their flags was heartwarming.
2. In the small town, the proudling of the athletes was celebrated with a grand parade.
3. The artist felt a sense of proudling as she unveiled her masterpiece to the eager crowd.
4. With every achievement, the proudling of the family grew stronger and more united.
5. His proudling demeanor during the award ceremony was evident to everyone present.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/proudling>