

PROVINCIALIST

Meaning: Provincialist: a person who holds narrow, limited views that prioritize local or regional interests over broader, more global perspectives.

1. The provincialist attitude in the town often stifled any attempts at modernization.
2. Her provincialist views limited her understanding of the broader cultural influences at play.
3. In a globalized world, being a provincialist can lead to isolation and missed opportunities.
4. Critics accused the author of having a provincialist perspective that ignored urban complexities.
5. The provincialist mindset made it difficult for the community to embrace new ideas and innovations.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/provincialist>