

PROWL

Meaning: Prowl: to move about stealthily or in a sneaky manner, typically in search of prey or something to hunt.

1. The cat began to prowl through the tall grass, searching for its next meal.
2. After dusk, the wolves would prowl the outskirts of the village in search of food.
3. He could feel the tension in the air as the detective prowled the dimly lit alley for clues.
4. The children giggled as they played hide and seek, pretending to prowl like lions in the jungle.
5. As the storm approached, shadows seemed to prowl along the edges of the forest, adding to the eerie atmosphere.
6. The cat began to prowl through the garden, searching for its next meal.
7. At night, the wolves would prowl the outskirts of the village, their howls echoing in the darkness.
8. She could feel his eyes on her as he chose to prowl around the edges of the party.
9. The detective decided to prowl the streets for clues that might lead to the missing person.
10. He watched the shadows prowl in the alley, a feeling of unease creeping over him.
11. The cat began to prowl around the garden, looking for any signs of movement.
12. At night, the city streets felt alive as shadows prowl silently between the alleys.
13. He could sense danger nearby as he prowled through the dense forest, alert to every sound.
14. The detective decided to prowl the neighborhood, hoping to gather clues about the recent theft.
15. As the moon rose high, the wolves would prowl the open fields in search of prey.