

PRUNING

Meaning: Pruning is the act of trimming or cutting back plants, especially trees and shrubs, to promote healthy growth and improve their shape.

1. Pruning the rose bushes in early spring encourages new growth and vibrant blooms.
2. The gardener spent the afternoon pruning the trees to improve their shape and health.
3. Effective pruning techniques can significantly enhance the yield of fruit-bearing plants.
4. After pruning the hedges, the backyard looked much neater and more inviting.
5. She learned the importance of pruning as part of regular maintenance for her indoor plants.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/pruning>