

PRY

Meaning: PRY: to inquire closely or inquisitively into someone's private affairs or to forcefully open something.

1. She couldn't help but pry into her sister's personal life, despite knowing it was none of her business.
 2. The detective had to pry open the old, rusted lock to access the hidden compartment.
 3. It was rude to pry into someone else's conversation, but she was too curious to resist.
 4. He gently tried to pry the secret out of her, hoping she would finally confide in him.
 5. After hours of prying, she finally discovered the truth hidden beneath layers of deception.
 6. She couldn't help but pry into her friend's secrets, even when asked to respect her privacy.
 7. The journalist tried to pry information from the reluctant witness during the interview.
 8. Children have a natural curiosity that often leads them to pry into things they shouldn't.
 9. It's important to set boundaries to prevent others from prying into your personal life.
 10. He had a habit of prying open old wounds whenever he brought up past mistakes.
 11. She couldn't help but pry into her friend's personal life, despite knowing it was inappropriate.
 12. The detective decided to pry into the suspect's alibi, looking for inconsistencies in his story.
 13. You should respect people's privacy and not pry into their affairs unless they invite you to.
 14. As a journalist, it's her job to pry for the truth, even when it makes others uncomfortable.
 15. His natural curiosity often led him to pry into topics that most people would rather avoid.
 16. She couldn't help but pry into her friend's personal life, eager to uncover the secrets he was keeping.
 17. The detective had to pry open the locked drawer to find the evidence he needed for the case.
 18. Children often pry into things they shouldn't, driven by curiosity and a sense of adventure.
 19. It's best not to pry too deeply into someone's past unless they are willing to share.
 20. He used a crowbar to pry the old boards off the door, revealing what lay hidden inside.
-

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com
<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/pry>