PSILANTHROPISM

Meaning: Psilanthropism is the belief in a deep empathy for human suffering that does not rely on the existence of divine or higher powers.

1. Psilanthropism reflects a profound understanding of human suffering without necessarily believing in higher powers.

2. The philosopher's views on psilanthropism challenged traditional notions of altruism and moral responsibility.

3. In a world rife with inequality, psilanthropism offers a secular framework for addressing humanitarian needs.

4. Her advocacy for psilanthropism emphasizes the importance of human agency in creating social change.

5. The documentary explored the implications of psilanthropism in modern society, highlighting various grassroots movements.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/psilanthropism